

Holley-Gramling Nuptials Held at Church of Nativity

Mrs. Florence Agnes Gramling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Gramling Sr., of 908 Cota avenue, Clyde Cecil Holley, son of Mrs. Robt. H. Wiley of Jacksonville, Florida were married Tuesday morning in the Church of the Nativity by Rev. Joseph Leo Bauer.

The bride, attired in dark brown wool crepe with yellow accessories and yellow rosebuds was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Dorothy G. Weber, was her sister's only attendant.

At the end of Mass, Mr. and Mrs. Holley received their friends in the church vestibule. Breakfast for the bridal couple and members of the family was enjoyed at the bride's home where a beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut.

Memorial Banquet at Methodist Church Has Large Crowd

An evening long to be remembered was enjoyed by members and friends of the Methodist church when a memorial banquet was given Feb. 21. Despite the rain a large crowd was present for the turkey dinner served by the ladies of the church.

A fine program was presented with Guy Mowry as toastmaster. Rev. and Mrs. Harry Branton welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Harry Banks, Rev. and Mrs. Brewster, Mrs. Kemp Winkler, Rev. Claude Young of Redondo Beach and heads of departments of the church. Miss Gertrude Mowry sang and the guest speaker was Rev. Arthur Hobson, superintendent of the Long Beach district.

Highlight of the evening was the burning of the local note and the unveiling of the picture, "The Last Supper." In memory of Miss Etta Mowry, who bequeathed her home to the church. The program closed with memorial remarks given by Rev. Brewster.
